Follow-up Specialist Input Initial Specialist Does this patient have pneumomediastinum? Rationale Rationale A pneumothorax is a collection of air or gas in the Effective. pleural space that causes partial or complete lung A pneumothorax is a collection of air or gas in the pleural collapse. A pneumomediastinum is a collection of air or space that causes partial or complete lung collapse. Choices: gas in the mediastinum, which is the space between Revised rationale: A pneumothorax is a collection of air A. Yes the lungs and behind the sternum ... If you see any air or gas in the pleural space that causes partial or or gas in the mediastinum, you can conclude that the complete lung collapse ... If you see any air or gas in the B. No patient has a pneumomediastinum. The patient has a mediastinum, you can conclude that the patient has a pneumomediastinum. pneumomediastinum. Diagnostic Specialist Answer: A.Yes Answer: A.Yes Diagnostic Specialist